

Business Integrity Forum Company commitments:

All Member companies of the Forum undertake to

- Promote and respect the TIB principles of Transparency, Integrity and Accountability.
- Publicly reject corruption in all its forms and promote honest and transparent practices in all its activities.
- Mobilise, with a view to the long term and continuous improvement, the necessary resources to prevent the risks of corruption within its organisation by adopting an anti corruption programme based on the recommendations of Transparency International Belgium.
- Regularly inform Transparency International Belgium of the actions taken and accept that information on these actions be made public.
- In the event of a proven failure in its preventive measures, to adopt corrective measures to avoid a recurrence.
- Inform Transparency International Belgium of any serious allegation of corruption involving it, one of its associated entities or one of its representatives - opening of an investigation by the judicial authorities of a country, serious allegations reported by the press in Belgium or abroad -, without this undertaking, however, leading it to contravene any legal or regulatory obligations of confidentiality (e.g. rules applicable to listed companies).
- Respect the conditions governing the use of the association's logo by partner organisations.
- Pay an annual subscription to support the association's activities and inform its Executive Committee of all the commitments made under this charter.
